

Thank, Ask, Trust.

ON THE PALM OF YOUR HAND you write my name, O God.

Through the pages of creation, my life unfolds.

In the chambers of your heart, I have a home, O God, where every cry is heard, every tear seen, every thanks whispered in the dark or sung to the morning is known to you.

And still, I am slow to thank, to ask, to trust.

O God, who is great and good, help me to pray. Amen.

Today's Question: Pray today's prayer.

Today's Scripture: Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:5-11, NRSV
