

Your Faith Story. THERE IS A SENSE of urgency about preserving one's faith story in the later years. It is sad when older people wait too long to achieve this task. As the writer of Ecclesiastes stated, "Remember your creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come, and the years draw near when you say, 'I have no pleasure in them'" (Ecclesiastes 12:1). We might well rephrase those words in this way: Remember ... your story in the days when you can write it down, before the inevitable losses of old age come, and you can no longer fulfill that task.

Today's Question: Have you written or told your faith story?

Today's Scripture: For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. Romans 8:14, NRSV

This Week: pray for the victims of violence.

Prayer.

Pray for the Council's Midyear Review this Sunday, 27/5, that they will know the heart and mind of the Lord to lead the congregation in response to the New Malaysia.

Continue to pray for healing for all those who are not well, as well as the elderly in our midst who are facing health challenges, their families and caregivers

Adapted from the 24-7 Malaysia & CCM:

Pray for good health, God's grace, wisdom and protection for our Prime Minister Tun Dr. Mahathir as he carries out his duties; as well as the newly appointed Cabinet.

Pray for those in civil service for transition grace for adaptability and growth in their respective areas of service.

Also for God's wisdom, guidance and power to be upon the newly elected government officials to set things in right order, and provide a foundational framework of governance that facilitates and rewards truth, righteousness, justice, wisdom, mercy, humility.

For continual breaking down of racial divide; for believers to continue to build bridges with others; to love and serve one another in the nation, so there will be peace and unity in the land.

Remembering in prayer -- Pr Raymond Koh, Amri Che Mat, Joshua & Ruth Hilmi.
